October – Vocational Service Month

- From www.rotary.org/RIdocuments:

Vocational Service and High Ethical Standards

Historically, Rotarians have promoted the practice of high ethical standards as part of their commitment to vocational service. Two tools developed by Rotarians — The Four-Way Test and the Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions — provide a road map for practicing ethical behavior in the workplace and other areas of life.

The Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test was conceived in 1932 by Herbert J. Taylor, a member of the Rotary Club of Chicago who served as the 1954-55 president of Rotary International. Having been assigned the task of saving a company from bankruptcy, Taylor developed the test as an ethical guide to follow in all business matters. The company's survival was credited to this simple philosophy. Adopted by Rotary International in 1934, The Four-Way Test remains an essential standard against which Rotarians measure ethical behavior. The test has been translated into dozens of languages and promoted by Rotarians worldwide.

The Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

- 1) Is it the TRUTH?
- 2) Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3) Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4) Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Promote Rotary's commitment to high ethical standards

- Post The Four-Way Test on a prominent billboard in your community.
- Display The Four-Way Test and/or the Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions in your office or work space and use it as a conversation starter to tell your colleagues about Rotary's commitment to business ethics and personal integrity.
- "Walk the talk" by ensuring that your actions in the workplace, community, and family demonstrate a personal commitment to high ethical standards.
- Sponsor an essay contest in which participants describe how they can apply The Four-Way Test to their lives.
- Sponsor a "character literacy" project for young children that integrates lessons about ethics with children's reading activities. For additional information, contact the RI Literacy Resource Group at www.rotary.org/literacy.
- Conduct a RYLA event with special emphasis on ethics.
- Organize a discussion or group workshop on maintaining high ethical standards in the workplace and consider inviting local non-Rotarian business leaders to attend.

UPDATES – RI, District & Club

1) World Polio Day is October 24. For October 18-24, in honor of World Polio Day, The Rotary Foundation is offering double Paul Harris Fellow recognition points for online only contributions of US$100 or more for the $200 Million Challenge to eradicate polio. Help eradicate polio by making your online contribution at www.rotary.org. Click the "Contribute" tab and follow instructions.

Online contributions can't be made on behalf of another individual, club, or district. Promotional recognition points should appear within four to six weeks.

2) Health & Happiness, a weekly club activity, allows members to share good news for a donation to CART – Coins for Alzheimer's Research Trust.

3) Welcome to our newest members!

Last week, we inducted Dr. Pam Cain, Superintendent for Kannapolis City Schools, and Dale Irvin, ReStore & Marketing Manager for Habitat for Humanity of Cabarrus. (Photo missing) That brings us to a total of EIGHT new members during the first quarter of our new Rotary year! Congratulations, Rotarians~

4) Club Directory Photos

New member/photographer, Hugh Fisher, has volunteered to make member photos for the online directory. This is a directive from our DG Firoz. Below is the schedule by last name initial:

A through C	October 19
D through I	October 26
J through M	November 2
N through R	November 9
S through Z	November 16
Make-ups	November 30

Remember to smile for the camera!

5) Junior Rotarians

During the month of October, be sure to welcome these students from A. L. Brown High School: Jackson Boone, Zebresha Blakeney, Martel Campbell, and Haley Campbell. We will hear from them during the October 26 program.

6) Salvation Army Bell Ringing

Former club member, Bob McVay, visited with us last week. He asked that we continue volunteering to ring the Salvation Army Bell at Bi-Lo on Cannon Boulevard, especially in memory of Danny Carroll. He and Bob coordinated that activity for many years. Gwynn McCombs offered to compile a schedule for sign-up. Melvin Rape pictured from November 2009-

Today's Program
L. J. Weslowski, Transit Manager for Rider
Arranged by Mike Legg

-From City of Concord newsletter:

Lawrence J. "L.J." Weslowski Jr. was selected the first transit manager for the Concord-Kannapolis transit system known as Rider. He brings more than 15 years experience in transit planning, operations and management, and most recently served as a general manager for Veolia Transportation. He received both his undergraduate and masters degrees from the University of Massachusetts.

L.J. and his wife are residents of Cabarrus County and are active in the community.

-From City of Kannapolis website:

CK Rider

The CK Rider bus system has seven routes throughout Concord and Kannapolis, providing service to many local neighborhoods.

The buses also stop at many of the area's major employers and other common destinations including Concord Mills, Cannon Village, Carolinas Medical Center NorthEast, Carolina Mall, the Kannapolis Amtrak station, Cloverleaf Plaza, Rowan-Cabarrus Community College (South Campus), Afton Ridge and Afton Village.

Buses run Monday through Friday from 5:30 a.m. until 8:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. until 8:30 p.m.

All buses are ADA accessible, and door-to-door service is available for persons with disabilities who cannot maneuver the fixed route system.

Money-saving Rider Bus Passes can be purchased at the Kannapolis or Concord City Offices. Discounted fares are available for students, senior citizens and those with disabilities.

For complete fares and schedules, visit www.ckrider.com or call Rider Customer Care at 704-920-RIDER. Free Rider brochures are also available at Concord and Kannapolis City offices.
